- 10. Towdah – Hebrew word for a thanks offering
- 11. Zamar – Hebrew word for making music accompanied by strings
- 12. Proskuneo – The primary Greek word, meaning “to kiss”

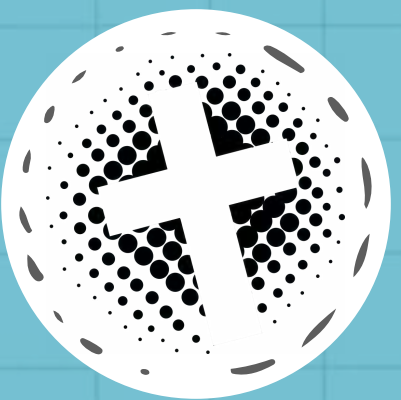

9. YADAH IS A VERB WITH A ROOT MEANING, "THE EXTENDED HAND, TO THROW OUT THE HAND, THEREFORE TO WORSHIP WITH EXTENDED HAND, TO LIFT THE HANDS. EXPRESSES GRATITUDE, THANKFULNESS AND SURRENDER."

"SACRIFICE OF PRAISE"

10. TOWDAH comes from the same principle root word as yadah, but is used more specifically. Towdah literally means, thanksgiving or an extension of the hand in adoration, declaration, or acceptance. By way of application, it is apparent in the Psalms and elsewhere that it is used for thanking God for “things not yet received” as well as things already at hand.

11. ZAMAR is “to make music by striking the fingers on strings or parts of a musical instrument. Also to pluck the strings of an instrument, to sing, to praise; a musical word which is largely involved with joyful expressions of music with musical instruments.”

12. PROSKUNEO means to show reverence to; or another translation can be “to kiss” as in to kiss the hand of a superior. It is commonly associated with bowing down or lying prostrate on the ground with the idea of kissing the ground before someone. The idea is to show profound reverence and submission to someone.
